LOW LIGHT

MAY & JUNE 2019

In May & June 2019, Queenscliff & Point Lonsdale become immersed in the second incarnation of 'Low Light, Queenscliff', a boutique Fringe Festival bringing the finest international and local arts & culinary talents in a two month-long celebration of all the senses. Queenscliff was, for many years, one of Victoria's most renowned seaside resorts, filled with Victorian -era architectural grandeur & a restorative climate, top & tailed by two still-standing lighthouses (High Light and Low Light).

Since its renaissance some thirty odd years ago, Queenscliff has garnered a reputation for experiential excellence, a long-standing host to bespoke music events, art exhibitions & gourmet dining across its warmer months. Low Light is a new twist to proceedings, offsetting the low season & Queenscliff's bracing seaside cold with two months celebrating warming, immersive comforts & the arts.

QUEENSLIFFE LITERARY FESTIVAL

Now in its fifth year, the 2019 Queenscliffe Literary Festival showcases an outstanding program of events, panels, conversations and workshops in Queenscliff and Point Lonsdale over three weekends in May.

This year's theme 'Inside Out' embraces all sectors of the community, with a range of authors presenting from different age groups and backgrounds.

The festival prides itself on offering a varied and lively program including authors of fiction and non-fiction. Visiting writers include Kerry O'Brien, Helen Garner, Richard Fidler, Sarah Ferguson, Michael Robotham, Heather Morris, William McInnes, Meshel Laurie, Peter Phelps, Rosalie Ham and many others. 10-26 May.

QMF WINTER CONCERT SERIES

Queenscliff Music Festival presents a special Winter Concert series this June featuring Dan Sultan, Clare Bowditch & Archie Roach in the historic Queenscliff Town Hall. These intimate shows get you up-close-and-personal, in a seated concert setting with 3 of Australian music's biggest names.

SACREDEGE FESTIVAL

The annual Sacrededge Festival will this year be presented as part of Low Light. Opening Doors to diversity, Sacrededge is a response to a sometimes harsh and fearful world. It is an opportunity to connect with people from diverse backgrounds. Rather than debate and argue about issues Q&A style, this unique festival listens to people from the edge... their stories, music and poetry. This year features over 30 top class musicians and presenters including Mojo Juju, Lior, Taqi Khan, Padraig O-Tuama, Awale Ahmed, Fadak Alfayadh, Wirramanda Mob plus many more. 3-5 May.

WINTER WONDERLAND

Queenscliff is set to become a winter wonderland over the June-July school holidays. Bringing a touch of the northern hemisphere to the south, prepare to strap on your skates and have a wild time at Winter Wonderland @ the Queenscliff Harbour. Come rain, hail or shine; morning, noon or night, bring the family and skate to your hearts content undercover and out of the elements. 28 June - 14 July.

BELLARINE LIGHTHOUSE FILM FESTIVAL

Bellarine Lighthouse Film's annual film festival this year closes out Low Light and promises a highly entertaining, thought provoking and indulgent festival including films, food, wine and conversation to alight all your senses. Warm up your winter with a weekend long program of local and international stories that will ignite discussions and linger with you. Five critically acclaimed films will screen over the last weekend of June including A Boy Called Sailboat featuring a live performance of the film's score by the Grigoryan Brothers, Wajib - the Wedding Invitation, Under the Tree, Capharnaum and Oh Lucy! 28-30 June.

PLAN YOUR WEEKEND

Why not make a weekend of it and enjoy a range of events and activities from Friday through to Sunday. There's a plethora of hotels, motels, B&Bs and homestays both in Queenscliff and Point Lonsdale to make you feel right at home. For details of accommodation, including some very special Low Light packages, head to the Low Light festival website's 'Plan Your Weekend' page. As for getting here, it's a mere 90 minutes from Melbourne's city centre, equally accessible from Geelong, the Surfcoast and Ballarat - and if you're coming from Sorrento and Portsea, just hop on the ferry.
